Inspector Comments: Our department received a complaint stating that there has been a fire last night and fire extinguisher has been used and it touched food. Met with the store manager and Jack in the box district manager whom stated that the fire took place this morning @ 7:30 AM behind the griddle while cooking . The food workers tried to use the fire extinguisher available in the facility which failed to work . The facility operator called the fire department and the fire was put down . The facility is closed and all food is discarded and management is working on cleaning the griddle and removing all grease build up . Management is working on cleaning and sanitizing all equipments , food contact surfaces , vents. Facility will stay closed until further notice . Facility operator will contact district inspector to schedule for reopening the facility .
