

CPSP Client Orientation

Checklist

- Medical Procedures, including routine laboratory and other test as needed
- Health education, nutrition, and psychosocial services
- Name and role of caregivers
- Where to obtain services (hospital and Dr. office)
- Office hours
- Making and breaking appointments
- Maps & directions
- Phone number during business and non-business hours
- “Welcome to pregnancy care” handout given
- Danger signs and symptoms of pregnancy and whom to contact if problems arise (handout “Danger signs when you are pregnant” given)
- Client’s rights and responsibilities (handout “Your rights as a client” given)
- WIC referral

Date _____ Signature _____ Time _____