Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr., Alongside his Colleagues, Accepts 4.5 Million Dollar Check for New San Bernardino County Animal Care Center Plans

San Bernardino, CA.- On October 17th, 2022, Assembly Majority Leader Eloise Gomez-Reyes delivered a 4.5-million-dollar funding from the State of California to Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr., Vice-Chair Dawn Rowe, and Director of Public Health Josh Dugas, on behalf of San Bernardino County to assist in the plans for the building of San Bernardino County's new Animal Care Center. The facility will be located in Bloomington and will expand the current capacity.

"The County of San Bernardino is ecstatic to announce the plans to build a new county animal care center. This state-of-the-art facility will have many new and improved services including, onsite veterinary and adoption services, dedicated space for intern and volunteer programs, and expanded animal play yards. This animal center will provide all our staff with accessibility to care for the needs of these animals in the best way possible. We are so thrilled this is coming to Bloomington and look forward to the construction beginning." -Supervisor Joe Baca, Jr.
